Encik Adnan, 61 and his wife, Puan Rokiah, 57 both of whom have suffered from diabetes for more than 20 years. They have started using GlucosCare Herbal Tea 3 weeks ago at the time of the interview.

Of the two, Encik Adnan's condition is more serious. Before he used GlucosCare Herbal Tea, he could not even recognize his own children and the wound that he sustained from a embedded thorn on his feet were swollen and he said that he suffered from unbearable throbbing pains. He looked pale and his body had turned yellowish. At the time of the visit, his complexion looked more pinkish and he no longer feel any pain.

Puan Rokiah said that she had taken her husband to the district hospital for treatment and after examining his leg, the doctor told them that it had to be amputated at the earliest time possible to save his life. That was when they heard about Glucoscare Herbal Tea and started using it. After 3 days of using Glucoscare Herbal Tea, the wound on his foot which used to discharge pus and fluid dried up and was healing. He no longer needed to bandage his wound. Encik Adnan believes that GlucosCare Herbal has saved his leg. He has a friend who had his leg amputated but still suffers from poor health due to diabetes. He wished he had known of Glucoscare Herbal Tea earlier so that it could also have saved his friend's leg. Anyway, he would also introduce it to his friend.

Encik Adnan's vision was also badly affected by diabetes and even when he drove, his wife became the backseat driver warning him of the hazards ahead and even telling him when the traffic light turned red. Nowadays, he can drive without his wife beside him as Glucoscare Herbal Tea has also helped her husband in his bowel movement enabling him to ease himself easily every morning.

Relatives and friends are surprised at the improvement in Encik Adnan's health. Now, he can do chores in the house without feeling exhausted and his appetite has improved. Like all other diabetic patients, Encik Adnan used to feel drowsy and needed to have short naps many times a day. GlucosCare Herbal Tea has changed all that and he is now feeling very fit and does not need to sleep so often. He feels very cheerful now.

Puan Rokiah reveals that she has undergone chemotherapy before and is now suffering from hypertension, kidney disease, diabetes and other ailments. After drinking

Glucoscare Herbal Tea, she is now feeling healthier. She surprises everyone when she tells them that his sugar level has gone down from 29 mmol/L to 7.6 mmol/L after drinking Glucoscare Herbal Tea. His blood pressure is also within the normal range. Her doctor was amazed at the improvement in her health and asked her what medicine she had taken. She has undergone the medical examination after taking GlucosCare Herbal Tea. Puan Rokiah says that says she is now as fit as a fiddle and can even sing in a karaoke session and also dance.
